

Integration and the Second Generation

Integration and the Second Generation

Key questions for researchers:

- a) Is the situation of the second generation nowadays different from second generations in the past?

If yes:

- b) Is it the case for second generations as a whole, or for specific categories?
- c) What are the specific factors that contribute to such differences?
- d) What are the consequences for policies?

Integration and the Second Generation

Key questions for policy makers:

- a) Do you share the diagnosis of the researchers?
- b) What are the general and specific policies that correspond to this diagnosis?
- c) What are the instruments available for such policies?
- d) Who will be the actors in the implementation?