

The Transformation of Ethnic Neighborhoods into Places of Leisure and Consumption

International Metropolis Conference,
Lisbon, October 2006

Jock Collins and Kirrily Jordan (University of Technology Sydney)

Ethnic Precincts and Cultural Landscapes of Tourism in Australia: Sydney's Chinatown and Perth's Northbridge

Pierpaolo Mudu (Università di Roma)

The Multiethnic Esquilino Neighborhood in Rome: Multiple Trajectories of Development

Surrendra Santokhi (City of The Hague)

The Rise of Ethnic Precincts as Tourist Attractions: The Case of The Hague

Wei Li (Arizona State university)

Consuming Chinese Culture? Chinese Cultural Center in Metropolitan Phoenix

Ching Lin Pang (Catholic university of Leuven)

Chinatown: Why Hot? The Case of Antwerp

Lucia Lo (York University)

Consuming Chinatown: A Tale of Two Cities

Dan Hiebert and Francois Bertrand (University of British Columbia)

The transformation of Vancouver's Chinatown as a site for tourism, leisure and consumption