

Queer cosmopolitanism and changing cities

Date: Wednesday 4th October, 2006

Time: 15:00 to 18:30

Location: To be confirmed (please check conference programme on arrival)

Workshop Programme

15:00

Michele Grigolo (European University Institute)

Queer human rights and the city: local anti-discrimination laws and policies for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people

15:20

Paulo Jorge Vieira (Não Te Prives; and Centre for Social Studies, Coimbra University)

Coimbra, a closet city?

15:40

Alison Rooke (Goldsmiths College, University of London - Centre for Urban and Community research)

The changing landscape of London's Queer Voluntary Sector

16:00

Discussion

16:30

Break

17:00

Fernando Garcia (Royal Holloway, University of London)

Café culture in queer Madrid: conviviality and hospitality in cosmopolitan cities

17:20

Martha Escalona Zerpa (Humboldt University, Berlin)

Sexual Diversity, Lesbian Identity and Migration. A gender analysis of the construction of sexual identity and the socio-political positioning of Latin American Lesbian Immigrants living in Berlin/Germany

17:40

Giovanni Allegretti (INURA - International Centre for Urban Research and Action; and Centre for Social Studies, Coimbra University)

Queer spaces within the geographies of the 'insurgent city'. A study in Florence, Italy

18:00 - 18:30

Discussion